

Cartoons

Support Description

Creating cartoons allows students to use drawings and text bubbles to communicate complex ideas that they would not be able to express through writing only. This support can boost the ability of beginner ELLs as they try to communicate what they cannot express in their second language.